DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Montoli US 5,199,451 in view of Boucheron US 5,206,841.

Montoli '451 teaches a makeup compact container with a base (72), lid (76) and cover (28). The reference fails to teach an engageable body in a groove to be engaged by an engaging body on the cover. Montoli '451 teaches welding the cover to the lid at (30).

Boucheron '841 teaches a replacement cover for watches, teaching a recessed groove (12a, 12b) with an engageable body (18) and an engaging body (16a, 16b) on a replacement cover.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the connection between the lid and cover of Montoli '451, providing the resilient interengagement taught by Boucheron '841, motivated by the benefit of providing a mechanical expedient means for securing two elements together.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Li US 5,727,681 in view of Boucheron US 5,206,841.

Li '681 teaches a CD container with a base (2), lid (1) and cover (17). The reference fails to teach an engageable body in a groove to be engaged by an engaging body on the cover. Li '681 does not mention the means for connecting the lid and cover.

Art Unit: 3781

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the connection between the lid and cover of Li '681, providing the resilient interengagement taught by Boucheron '841, motivated by the benefit of providing a mechanical expedient means for securing two elements together.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
